MEN SEEM READY TO STRIKE

Southern Pacific Employees Are Evidently Preparing for a Walkout

Blacksmiths, Machinists, Boiler-makers and Car-Workers Now Balloting

That the local employees of the Southern Pacific shops will vote, if they have not already done so, to go on strike, following the action taken by shopmen in other cities, seems assured. The local branch of the Shop Federation, which is composed of all employees of railroad shops, including machinists, boiler-makers and helpers, blacksmiths and allied workers, is allied with Local Union No. 610 of the Machinists, which body had a meeting last Tuesday night. It is believed that action on the question of the strike was discussed and probably voted upon at that time, but if the members voted to walk out their decision has not been reported to the Central Labor Council, A. W. Sifton, secretary. Sifton expressed the opinion this morning, however, that if no vote had been taken it would be.

The Shop Federation of the road has its headquarters in Sacramento with a branch in San Francisco under the direction of E. L. Reguin. The local branch is an organization of recent formation, of which W. W. Whitmore, machinist in the Southern Pacific shops, is secretary. The local branch is one of the strongest of the Federation, and if the members vote to strike it will mean the walk-out of several hundred employees of the shops here about the bay.

ACTION AT SACRAMENTO.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24.—The blacksmiths, machinists, boiler-makers and car workers of the Southern Pacific shops in Sacramento have voted on the question of a strike. While the ballot was secret the members of the different organizations declare that all but the boiler-makers voted in favor of declaring a strike. The sheet metal workers are still to vote. Less than one-third of the men employed in the shops are organized or are members of the Federation.

BALLOT AT LOS ANGELES.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—The result of a secret ballot taken here on the question whether the shopmen of the Southern Pacific railroad shall strike was sent to union officers in San Francisco and Sacramento today. Officially the result of the ballot was not given out, but according to statements made by the men the vote was in favor of a strike if the railroad company does not consent to a conference and various concessions.

Immediate trouble, however, is not expected. E. H. Minter, an official of the Machinists' Union, said today that the situation might continue in its present status for some time.

The machinists, boiler-makers, car workers and sheet metal smiths participated in the ballot, each organization voting separately. All the unions combined are said to muster a strength of 700 men employed in the Southern Pacific shops, yards and round houses here.

WHAT REGUIN SAYS.

MURDERED AS THEY SLEPT

Young Man Accused of Killing His Father, Mother and Brother

Robbery Said to Have Been the Motive for Brutal Crime

BOONEVILLE, Ind., Aug. 24.—Richard Lee and his wife were killed in their beds this morning, with a hammer and their 17-year-old son Clarence was shot dead and their house set on fire. William Lee, an elder son, was arrested today charged with the murder.

The house was found burning early this morning and when the firemen reached they scene they discovered that all the doors and windows were locked. Breaching them down the firemen found the incinerated bodies of Lee, his wife and younger boy. The skulls of the father and mother had been caved in with a hammer while they were lying in bed.

Robbery, it is believed, was the motive. It is known that the Lee family, consisting of father and mother and two children, had sold their small piece of property in Newburg and divided up the money. The sum was divided into four parts. The mother and father and younger boy took their money and went back to their home in Booneville. The older son, William, who is 21 years of age, remained in Newburg, and returned to Booneville after his family had gone to bed.

Information also came out that Lee and his father had quarreled frequently over money matters, insurance policies amounting to $5000 were found today on the lives of Richard Lee, the father, and his son Clarence, both victims of the tragedy.

Spanish War Veterans to Meet in San Francisco

Word has been received from B. A. Forster of this city, who is attending the annual encampment of the Spanish War Veterans in Oklahoma City, that by a practically unanimous vote the organization decided yesterday to favor the holding of its eighth annual encampment in San Francisco in 1915. The meeting will be a national affair, bringing thousands from all over the country. The veterans considered the Pacific coast as a most fitting place for a gathering owing to the fact that during the war San Francisco was the scene of great activities among the troops and the former soldiers, many of them who visited the city, are anxious to return.

SUSPECTED KIDNAPER MISSING

Detective James Hosick, Involved in McNamara Case, Can't Be Found

Accused Sleuth Was About to Face Extradition Proceedings

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—The Indianapolis kidnapping case, which involves Detective James Hosick of the Los Angeles police department, developed an unexpected feature today.

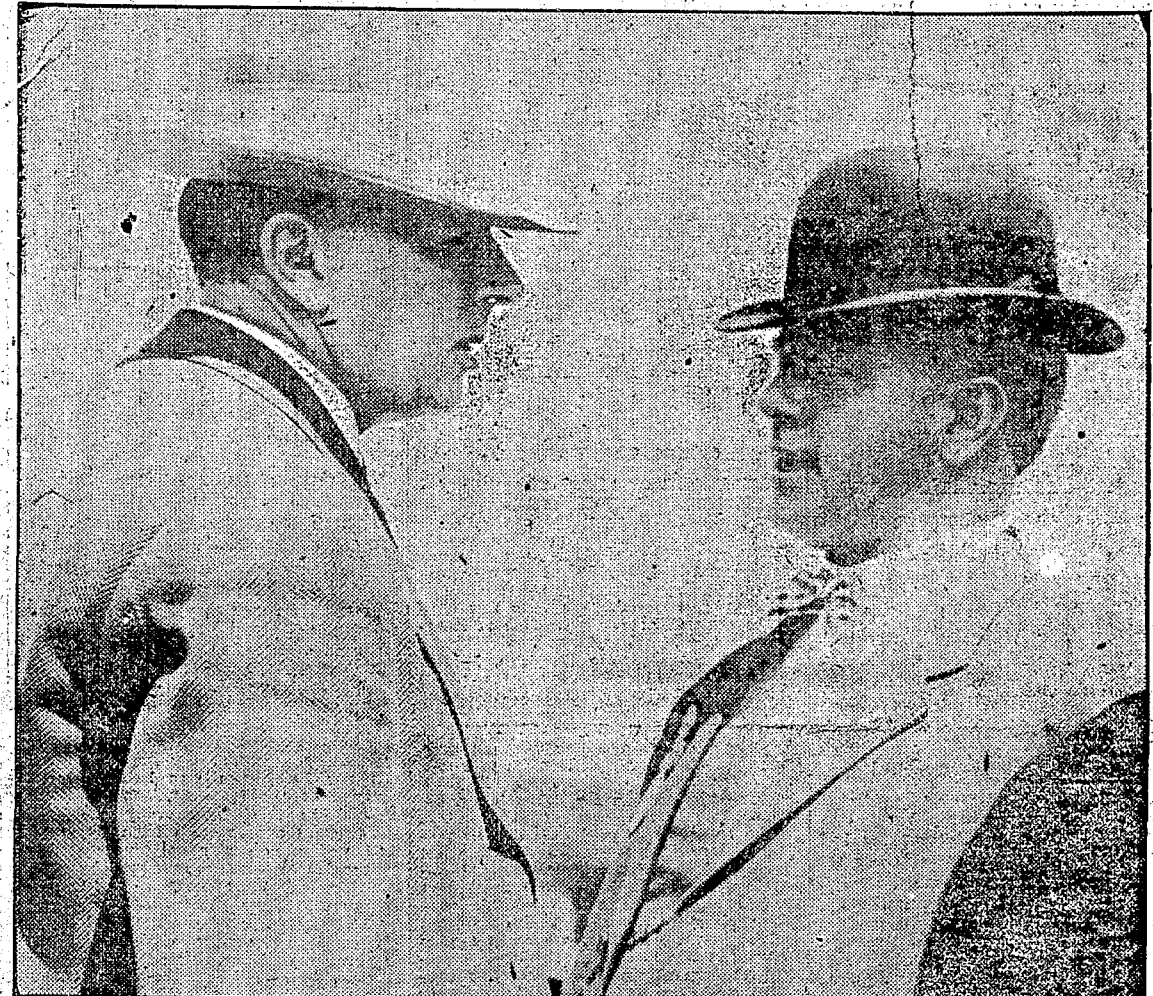

Hosick is missing. He has not been about the police station since the day Governor Johnson agreed to permit his extradition to Indianapolis to face the charge of having aided in the kidnapping of John J. McNamara, and although his attorney, E. J. Fleming, was expected to bring habeas corpus proceedings in his behalf, the belief was expressed at detective headquarters today that Hosick was on his way to Indianapolis without waiting for the warrant which is expected from Sacramento tomorrow.

Henry Seyfried, a deputy prosecuting attorney of Indianapolis, came from Sacramento to oppose the anticipated habeas corpus proceedings, while State Agent Hall of Indiana was to have left the state capital today with the warrant for Hosick.

Despite such preparations Hosick could not be located today, and Charles R. Moffatt, acting captain of city detectives, said that he thought the next thing which would be heard of Hosick would be his arrival at Indianapolis to give himself up to officers there. Fleming said he knew where Hosick was but would not give particulars. Neither would he deny that the detective was on the way to Indianapolis.

CHIEF JAILER AND ASSISTANT TESTIFY HEARING ON THE CONTEMPT CITATION

United States District Judge W. C. Van Fleet Probes Into the Wong You Affair

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—This morning Chief Jailer Peter L. White and Assistant Jailer Joseph D. Moffitt, of the Alameda county jail, appeared before United States District Judge Van Fleet on a citation to show cause why they should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court in allowing the Chinese, Wong Yu, to leave the county jail in custody of Jailer Moffitt, and it was claimed that his absence from the place of detention for six months with a fine of $500 on the charge of smuggling opium.

The Chinaman was allowed to visit his home in San Francisco, where he was discovered by United States custom officers and was again taken into custody. He is now in the charge of United States Marshal Elliott.

SEVERAL TIMES LEFT JAIL.

It was shown today at the hearing that Wong Yu had been several times allowed to leave the county jail in custody of Jailer Moffitt, and it was claimed that his absence from the place of detention was allowed by Chief Jailer White on an understanding to that effect, with the United States marshal.

When he was found at his place of business by the federal officers he stated that he was to meet Jailer Moffitt that night at 11 o'clock, and return to the county jail. His home is on this side of the bay.

During the progress of the case, the court intimated that the United States marshal had no authority to allow a prisoner to leave the jail except under cases of emergency. On behalf of the defendants, White and Moffitt, affidavits were read to the effect that Wong Yu never would have been permitted to leave the jail if it had not been understood that the marshal had given him permission to do so.

MARSHAL MAKES DENIAL.

The United States marshal took the stand and denied that he had ever given permission to Wong Yu to leave the jail regardless of the fact that the affidavit of Jailer White had stated that the latter had telephoned United States Marshal Elliott that he had received permission from the marshal to allow Wong Yu to go out of the jail to be treated for his trouble by a Chinese doctor in San Francisco.

There were present in the court a number of people from Oakland as well as from San Francisco, who were attracted by the somewhat novel character of the charge. The defendants, White and Moffitt, were accompanied by their respective wives. They were represented by Attorneys Schlesinger and Shortridge.

SAID HE HAD PERMISSION.

The marshal, it was set forth, replied that Wong Yu was White's prisoner and that it was with him to dispose of him and still retain him in custody. It also showed that Elliott had no objection to the Chinaman visiting the Chinese physician. He then set forth that White allowed Wong Yu to leave the jail in the custody of Jailer Moffitt.

It concluded by setting forth that the defendant had no intent of acting in contempt of court and that if what he had done should be so adjudged, desired to apologize to the court and hoped that the apology would be accepted.

Schlesinger then read the affidavit of Deputy Jailer Joseph Moffitt, which was along the same general lines as that of Chief Jailer White. He stated that he had been ordered by Chief Jailer White to take the Chinaman to see a physician.

SEVEN DEAD; MORE MAY DIE

Death Takes Its Toll in Fire in Giroux Consolidated at Ely

Flames, Probably Due to Explosion, Start at 1400-Foot Level

ELY, Nev., Aug. 24.—Of ten men who were working at the 1400-foot level of the new five-compartment shaft of the Giroux Consolidated Mines when it caught fire last night, seven are dead and three lie at the point of death after passing through the flames to reach the surface.

THE DEAD

DANIEL SHEA, secretary of the local miners' union.
T. J. GILMORE, shift boss.
JOHN WILHELMY.
THOMAS O'DOLEVICH.
EDWARD WALSH.
JOHN MINULTY.
MICHAEL FOLEY.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

CLARENCE GATES.
EDWARD KNOX.
PETER HARRINGTON.

The men on the 1400-foot level heard a noise which they thought was caused by an explosion. They looked upward and saw the shaft in flames.

ENCOUNTER FLAMES

They all boarded the cage and started for the surface. At the 1200-foot level they encountered the flames and stopped.

Wilhelmy and four other men left the cage and started to walk through the 1200-level to the old Alpha shaft, several hundred feet away, through which they hoped to climb out of the mine.

The five men remaining in the cage gave the signal to hoist and were pulled through the blazing shaft. One was dead when the top was reached and the other four were taken to a hospital.

WORK OF RESCUE

The work of rescuing the five men lying in the mine was then attempted through the Alpha shaft.

At the 400-foot level Wilhelmy was found dead; Gilmore's body was recovered at the 600-foot level; face downward at the bulkhead, O'Dolevich lay dead.

The other two bodies were found clinging to ladders, where the men had been suffocated.

This is the same mine in which, three and a half years ago, two men were killed and four others entombed for forty-six days in the Alpha shaft.

The new shaft is one of the largest and deepest in the district and cost over a quarter of a million dollars. Every effort is being made to extinguish the flames, which are still burning.

Walk 4000 Miles To Regain Health

Husband and Wife Reach Boston in Excellent Condition After Long Tramp.

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—Tanned by the summer sun and in excellent health, the securing of which was the object of their tramp, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Woolf of Kansas city are in Boston today after a 4000 mile walk across country.

A year ago Woolf, a musician, was in such poor health that physicians feared for his life. They advised a long trip in the open air and as a result Mr. and Mrs. Woolf left their home on October 15 for a tramp. They had no direct route and so they covered a much greater distance than they would have had they set out directly for Boston. When they left Kansas city, Woolf weighed 107 pounds, now he tips the scales at 140.

M'CARTHY FREED OF ALL BLAME

Coroner's Jury Decides That
Miss Sturtevant's Death
Was Due to Accident.

Accidental death was the verdict of the coroner's jury in the inquest over the death of Miss Ruth Sturtevant, a young bookkeeper and stenographer who was run down by P. H. McCarthy of 1154 Oxford street, Berkeley, Monday afternoon at Fifty-fifth street and Shattuck avenue. McCarthy was "exonerated from blame in the matter after he and several witnesses of the accident had described how it occurred.

McCarthy told Coroner C. L. Tisdale that he had done everything in his power to avoid the accident, and had afterward taken the injured woman to the East Bay Sanatorium. McCarthy explained that he had arranged with the friends of the deceased to pay all expenses from the time of the accident to the time of the arrival of the remains in Spokane, to which city they are to be shipped.

The aged mother of Miss Sturtevant in Spokane has been notified of her daughter's death. There was no life insurance, and the young woman was the sole support of her mother.

A verdict of accidental death was returned in the case of Peter Andrews, a guest of the St. George Hotel, who fell out of a window and was killed.

MISS RIEGELMAN TO GIVE RECITAL

Poet Charles Keeler of Berkeley to Read From His Selections.

Charles Keeler, poet and literary man of Berkeley, assisted by Miss Mabel Riegelman of this city, will give a farewell evening Saturday night at Century Hall, San Francisco, when, under the management of the local impresarios, Brogan and Ver Mehr the public will have an opportunity to hear Keeler in readings from his poems.

The affair is being looked forward to by literary and musical folk on both sides of the bay.

A large number of Berkeley and Oakland people will cross the bay to attend. Miss Riegelman's songs will be those by the talented Berkeley composer, Mrs. Edith Simmonds. Miss Riegelman's singing is too well known to need more than passing mention. She is a pupil of the noted singing teacher, Louis Crepau, and her beautiful soprano voice has won her fame in the East and abroad.

Keeler will leave shortly for an extended trip abroad, taking in the Orient and countries of Europe, Greece, Italy, Sicily and making London and Paris his destination, where he expects to place his literary output.

M. C. CHAPMAN'S REPORT TO COURT IS APPROVED

Sitting in the probate department of the Superior Court, Judge Everett J. Brown this forenoon approved the report and settled the final account of Attorney M. C. Chapman, as special administrator of the estate of the late William E. Dargie.

Testifying in his own behalf, Attorney Chapman explained to the court that during the period of his special administration there came into his possession personal property of the estate to the approximate value of $800,000, all of which, with the exception of about $9400 in cash, he had turned over to the regularly appointed executors of the will, who included himself, John F. Connors and J. C. Arnold. He said that to gather in this property required a great deal of time and much labor, because it was badly scattered, and that in addition to this there were many consultations with the executors and the attorneys.

The court complimented Mr. Chapman upon the showing made and fixed his compensation as special administrator at $300, allowing to Attorneys Fitzgerald & Abbott and Trefethen $500 for legal services.

KRUTTSCHNITT MAY BE HEAD OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC Rumor That There Will Be Changes in Management of the Harriman Lines

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—From New York comes the rumor that Judge Robert S. Lovett, president of the Harriman system, is contemplating changes that may elevate to the presidency of the system Julius Kruttschnitt, vice-president and director of maintenance and operation of the Harriman lines. In that event, railroad men say, Kruttschnitt's present position probably will be filled by E. E. Calvin of San Francisco, vice-president and general manager of the Southern Pacific.

Judge Lovett has issued a statement at New York that lends color to the rumor. The statement was issued because of the intense interest manifested by Wall street in the retrenchment policy recently adopted on the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific and because of the decline in Southern and Union Pacific stocks since August 1, when the Employees Federation of the Harriman system first made public their demands for decrease in working hours and an increase in pay. The statement says:

BLAMES STOCK JOBBERS:

"Ordinarily it is not the function of a railroad executive to take cognizance of stock market conditions, but during the last ten days Union Pacific has been singled out as the object of such an extraordinary number of baseless rumors, so persistently reiterated, that it seems to me due to stockholders, whom such stories are designed to disturb, that I should state that there are no dissensions whatever in our board of directors, that the management from top to bottom is perfectly harmonious; that a change in the dividend rate has not been discussed or in any way considered; and that, aside from some rearrangement of and additions to our organization, which I some time ago recommended, and which in due time will be made, no action has been taken or is contemplated out of the ordinary."

Judge Lovett, it is understood, refuses to discuss the nature of the pending "rearrangement of the additions" to the organization. Southern Pacific officials in San Francisco refuse to comment on Judge Lovett's statement. It is assumed, however, that Judge Lovett is paving the way in Wall street for the elevation of Kruttschnitt to the presidency of the Harriman lines. In that event Judge Lovett would serve the road in the capacity as financial and legal adviser, it is said.

Just as Lovett gained distinction in the railroad world as the legal adviser of the late E. H. Harriman, Judge Lovett is rated high as a financial man. Kruttschnitt, who now, as vice-president and director of maintenance and operation, has much to do with the operative and technical leadership of the system, is conceded to be one of the best practical railroad men in the country.

TRAIN CREWS NOT AFFECTED.

Railroad men say it is impossible to say to what extent the retrenchment demands have affected Harriman stocks. On August 1 Southern Pacific was quoted, at its lowest figure, at 12 1/4. Tuesday of this week it was quoted at 11 1/4. On August 1 Union Pacific's lowest quotation was 18 1/4. On Tuesday of this week its lowest quotation was 16 1/4.

It was stated yesterday from the general offices of the Southern Pacific in the Flood building that the retrenchment policy will not affect engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen or switchmen. None of these crafts is affiliated with the Employees Federation of the Harriman lines, the membership of which is confined to shopmen—blacksmiths, machinists, boilermakers, tinmiths, helpers and car repairers.

No shop men have been laid off, it was stated yesterday, and none will be laid off this month. This is because the number of working hours has been reduced in the shops have been reduced. Reductions will continue in the operating, maintenance and construction departments till on Saturday of this week, when all men will have been laid off on the Pacific system. Then the reductions will be more gradual.

MELVILLE LONG IN GRANDSTAND MATCH

Couples With Massachusetts
Champion in Big Feature Event.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 24.—In looking over the 32 players that formed the tennis chain at the Casino today, there was much speculation among the experts as to the identity of the 16 strong and weak links of the fourth round. Up to today the favorite in all the matches had come through with one exception and the survivors for today's play represented the best tennis element in New York, San Francisco and Providence, and with the others scattered about the country.

The Boston quartette was composed of N. W. Niles, S. Dabney, R. C. Gardner, and G. P. Gardner Jr. The New Yorkers were R. D. Little, G. F. Touchard, C. R. Gardner, Kiri Behr and C. M. Bull Jr.

From San Francisco there remained for today M. E. McLoughlin, M. E. Long and T. C. Bundy, while Providence had a strong aggregation in E. T. Cross, J. D. E. Jones, H. O. Ames and H. A. Mackinney. The committee decided to feature N. W. Niles, the Massachusetts champion, and Melville H. Long of San Francisco for the grandstand court match.

The early afternoon matches gave expected results. Summary: N. W. Niles, defeated J. C. Armstrong, St. Paul, 6-1, 6-1, 7-5. B. H. Hartford, Boston, defeated G. A. Pelham, New York, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3.

ELEPHANT CHIEF MOVER OF CIRCUS

Ringling Brothers' Herd Are Trained to Push Bemired Pole Wagons.

"The elephant is as essential to the circus make-up as the canvas which covers the host of wonders," said Charles A. White, who is in the city in the interest of Ringling Bros. "World's Greatest Shows," which comes to town on Thursday, September 7. "As an attraction, the elephant, and in the line of usefulness he has the horse backed off the boards. He is noted for his ability to 'holdie' Willie Smallboy's funnybone and glad-dad's heart. He has a life and blood of the peanut market, and a bubbling fountain of versatility."

"When the show grounds is a sea of mud and the heavy wagons are bogged up, it is the elephant that comes to the rescue. I have often seen a string of twenty horses endeavor to pull the pole wagon off a soft lot, but never budge it, while a medium-size elephant, had 'but to lower its head and give a slight push to land the wagon onto a paved street. Horses' hoofs mire easily and deter their power while Mr. Elephant experiences no such difficulty."

For Ringling Brothers' great herd of 40 pachyderms there are 10 which either work in harness or have been taught to push a wagon out of a mud hole. Recent demonstrations for the benefit of the press have elicited from the brute's power trip where it is allowed to push an object instead of pulling it. The formation of the trunk just below the animal's eyes is as strong as iron, and the muscles so concentrated that the creature's greatest strength is centered there.

"Students, who have traveled with the Ringling circus to study the traits of animals, have discovered that the pachyderms sleep less and eat less than any other animal in the menagerie."

close-in business property

that bears our guarantee

We are about to close out our holdings between Telegraph avenue and Broadway along Fortieth street and this advertisement is the first of a series to deal with the opportunities open to the man with a few hundred dollars to pay down on FIRST-CLASS BUSINESS PROPERTY.

As we announced some two months ago, the Oakland and Antioch Railway purchased from The Realty Syndicate the two blocks on 40th street, between Webster and Opal streets, for the terminal and passenger depot.

At that time, however, we were unaware of the extensive development under contemplation by this road and it has been only this week that full detail of their plans were made public.

Ground will be broken by September 1st at 40th street and Shattuck avenue and construction gangs will immediately commence laying the rails which are to meet the present terminus near Lafayette, in Contra Costa county.

Under the terms of a signed contract with the engineers who are extending the road trains over the entire system from Oakland to Antioch must be in full operation by July 1, 1912. That is less than a year distant.

This property, in our estimation, is the best real estate investment in Oakland today. At the prices asked for it it will not last long and we advise an early selection and reservation.

We know within twenty-five feet where the big passenger depot is to be located.

—where the local service is to extend up Shattuck avenue.

—where the swing train is to come to the very business center of Oakland and provide a new mode of inter-county transportation.

We know a dozen and one plans of the company that point to an early increase in property values in this district and we are at liberty to tell them.

Tomorrow you will learn something more of the property between these two points and we will show you that an incontestable array of FACTS combine in making the lots we have for sale the safest and sanest realty investment in the heart of Oakland.

The above diagram of the property shows the terminal and depot site of the Oakland and Antioch Railway and gives a better idea of the transportation facilities within a radius of two or three blocks. Broadway is two blocks east of Opal street and with Telegraph avenue is one of the main feeders between Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley.

For the accommodation of those who cannot call during the day our sales department offices will be open every evening. We will be glad to talk it over with you.

PETITION ABOUT COUNTY ROADS

Supervisors Asked to Take Action as to Names and Numbers.

The following petition has been filed with the Board of Supervisors:

565 24th street, Oakland, Cal., Aug. 15, 1911.

Alameda County Board of Supervisors, Gentlemen:—I respectfully request your honorable board to appropriate $30,000 in the coming budget for the following purposes:

To properly align the roads of the entire county into the best lengths for naming and blocking;

To suggest an appropriate convenient name for each road for adoption by your honorable board;

To measure the roads on the ground and divide each mile of the road length into ten equal parts, or imaginary blocks, of 328 feet each, the blocks having only road length or frontage; to number the blocks and assign the block number, together with its distinguishing letter, to each house having an entrance in the block; to deliver a suitable printed sheet of explanation and information at the houses or entrances along the roads; to furnish the county recorder a record from the roadblockers' field notes showing the names of the resident land holders;

To furnish for every house fronting a blocked road a suitable number board with its correct number;

To compile and cause to be published in pocket form a book containing a road guide, road map and guide board information, which will be much fuller and further reaching than is practicable to display upon the arms of the present guide posts set at the road contact-points; and to furnish copies of the same for the use of your honorable board. This will preclude the necessity of ever having to have guide posts set along the roads as it will be not only very much better, but also as durable as the roads themselves.

To furnish a large wall map of the roads of the county for official use. The roads on this map to be shown in bold colored lines, the colors of no two diverging roads to be the same, so that a change in the name of the road will be shown on the map by a change in the color of the line representing the road. The names of the roads to be shown by reference to tables in which they will be given in their geographical order and again in their alphabetical order, and in both tables their locations to be indicated by a key. Block numbers should be shown on the map at important points along the roads, such as the road contact-points, at the streams or bridges, railroad crossings, public grounds and school houses. This map should be made the official road map of the county.

To cause to be published a county road map of a size for business office use.

To cause a county directory to be published giving the land holders by house number and road name.

The whole according to the improved system of aligning, naming, blocking and marking county roads originated and developed by A. L. Bancroft.

Inclosed is a printed leaflet which explains the many advantages which the county will derive from systematic road blocking.

Respectfully yours,

(signed) A. L. BANCROFT.

SOCIALISTS OFFER REWARD FOR SHOAF

Fate of Missing Journalist
Causes Alarm to Debs and Warren.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—Socialists here received word today that Eugene V. Debs and Fred Warren of Willard, Kansas, has offered a reward of $500 for information relative to the whereabouts or fate of George H. Shoaf, the journalist who has been missing for eleven days. Eight detectives engaged by Shoaf's friends here have been unable so far to learn anything that might tend to clear the mystery of his disappearance.

Shoaf, who came here to write articles for a socialist paper regarding the McNamara dynamiting case, is the son of a San Antonio police officer. His father and mother are said to have expressed the belief in letters to Debs and Warren that their son has been slain. The elder Shoaf is on his way here and is due to arrive Saturday.

MORE SIGNATURES TO WILEY LETTER

Action Taken by State and National Food and Dairy Convention.

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 24. — The letter endorsing Dr. H. W. Wiley and promising support of his official acts, which was to have been sent to Washington last night, was held up for further signatures and will be sent to President Taft today by the Wiley delegates to the 15th convention of the association of State and national food and dairy convention.

Both sides of the convention have prepared a list of candidates for election today. The Wiley men say that by virtue of an agreement made at the New Orleans convention, Lucius P. Brown of Tennessee, the Wiley slate leader at this convention, is assured of a practically unanimous vote. Dr. W. P. Curtis of Missouri is the Wilson man for president.

A report of the committee revising the constitution will be submitted to the convention. The chief changes made by the committee in the draft, which they have prepared include the disfranchising of the assistants, chemists and others down in the employ of the various state departments and the limiting of the right to vote to the executives from the various state departments and the department of agriculture.

The subordinates and the assistants are left ex-officio members of the national association, but are deprived of their right to vote or to hold office.

Does Your Back Ache?

If you are a woman and you have this symptom get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound without delay. Backache seems an invention of the evil one to try woman's souls. Only those who suffer this way can understand the wearing, ceaseless misery.

We ask all such women to read the following letter for proof that Mrs. Pinkham's medicine cures backache caused by woman's diseases.

Morton's Gap, Kentucky. — "I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness on each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and am enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have the backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to all my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others you may publish it." — Mrs. Ollie Woodall, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made thousands of cures of such cases. You notice we say has cured thousands of cases. That means that we are telling you that it has done, not what we think it will do. We are stating facts, not guesses.

We challenge the world to name another remedy for woman's ills which has been so successful or received so many testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Taft's Splendid Record.

The close of the extra session of Congress finds President Taft far more strongly fortified in the confidence of his countrymen than he was last year. His political stature is consequently increasing, for opinions heretofore reserved are coming forth with commendations based upon results and actual performances. The President has had to contend with a politically hostile House and an incoherent and discordant Republican majority in the Senate. In both houses he had to combat the factious opposition of a section of his own party.

Yet he has been conspicuously successful in carrying through the measures on which his heart set. The only thing in which he failed was in getting the Senate to ratify the arbitration treaties negotiated with France and Great Britain. But there is no hurry about them, and doubtless they will be ratified during the regular session which begins in December. His greatest achievement was in the passage of the reciprocity bill, which was opposed in both houses by regular and insouciant Republicans.

President Taft now stands revealed as an able and adroit executive, who possesses in the highest degree the quality of statesmanship essential in a constitutional republic, where persuasion must be applied to both the people and their representatives. His position was one requiring tact and diplomacy, because he could not depend upon the united support of his own party, and was compelled to rely upon the good sense and patriotism of an opposition majority in the popular branch of Congress. Another difficulty was that he had to block hostile attacks on the protective tariff on the part of the Democrats he relied on to assist him in passing the reciprocity bill.

That he succeeded in both undertakings testified to his diplomatic skill. He won every point in the game, and in consequence stands higher in popular estimation than he ever did before. Even the factious opposition he encountered within his own party has been largely subdued by his firm yet gentle and reasonable policy. The people have been pleased by the frank way in which he laid his measures and his reasons for proposing them before the public.

We can now sum up the results of his administration to date, confident that they will meet popular approval. When he came into office there was a deficit in the treasury and the revenues were insufficient to meet the running expenses of the government. This condition has been reversed. The revenues now exceed the expenses of the government and there is a small surplus in the treasury.

The annual deficit in the Postal Department, which has existed ever since the department was instituted, has disappeared. At the close of the last fiscal year, for the first time in history, the revenues of the Postal Department exceeded the expenses. A surplus instead of the annual deficit was reported. Moreover, the postal service was extended and improved and its efficiency increased.

Great progress has been made in the matter of trust regulation and control, and in the enforcement of laws enacted to protect the people from the exactions of organized capital. Prosecutions have been instituted to enforce the laws without regard to persons or politics, and in consequence a complicated situation is rapidly clearing up.

The same can be said of forest and water conservation. Order is being brought out of chaos and definite plans of conservation worked out to meet actual conditions. Unless the President is balked by Congress, the situation in Alaska will be relieved before the end of the coming session.

Work on the Panama canal has been expedited, the nation's foreign commerce extended and our relations with all foreign powers placed on a more enduring and friendly basis. Our navy has been strengthened and the administration of affairs in our colonial possessions improved to such an extent that native hostility in the Philippines has ceased to give the government trouble. Porto Rico is prosperous and contented.

In minor matters the President has been equally successful. The public service has been improved in many particulars, a number of economies effected and some necessary reforms made in bureau methods. But for the embarrassment caused by factional politics the President would have accomplished still more in this direction. As it is, he has done wonders. No other President has dealt so successfully with conditions so untoward and circumstances so harassing to the Executive. That he has kept his head and his temper and held firmly to his policies testifies to the breadth of his understanding and his strength of character. His success is a moral triumph which will have a wholesome effect on political action. Steadiness of mind, sincerity of purpose, tact and candor have carried him through. Those qualities will be more highly appreciated next year than they are now.

William Howard Taft is one of the very best Presidents the country has ever had. He is perhaps the ablest administrator the government has had.

It is about time for Mayor Wilson of Berkeley to exclaim, "Save me from my friends!" Socialists all over the State are giving him orders and threatening him with dire penalties if he does not do as he is told. He has as many advisers as there are Socialists in the State, and each and every one feels called upon to give him commands. He had better join a Band of Hope or quit trying to be Socialist mayor of a highbrow town.

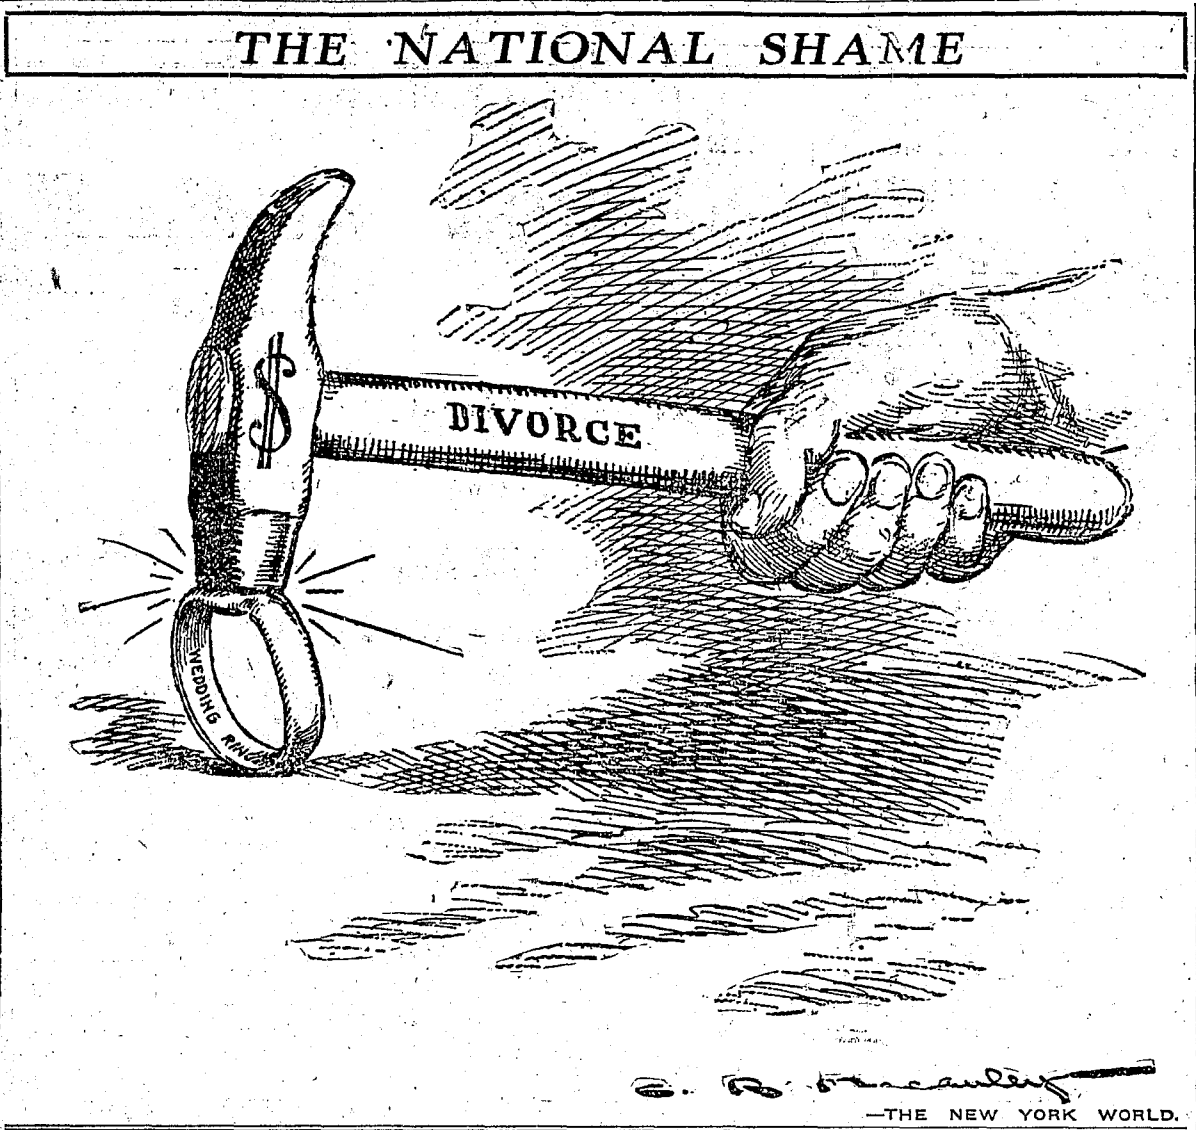

As to Dogday Journalism.

We have watched with an interest akin to merriment the hot air discussion the Fresno Republican and the Stockton Mail have been indulging in with regard to the dogday school of journalism the editor of the former has been conducting and instructing at Berkeley. After drawing a scoffing distinction between journalists and newspaper men, Phil Francis, the editor of the Mail, refers to Chester H. Rowell as a true journalist. The iron struck home, Mr. Rowell seems to have been offended at the suggestion that a school of journalism should be conducted by a journalist; moreover, he resents it.

The schoolmaster-editor of the Republican has taken a dreadful revenge. His retort is fairly demonic. He prints the name of the Mail editor thus: Fillfrancis. And he still survives. Furthermore, Mr. Powell insinuates that Mr. Francis is dead and is so stupid he doesn't know it, and he carries his malignity to the extent of asserting that since Mr. Francis died he has forgotten how to write English and now grinds out the kind of literary hash usually denominated in newspaper offices as journalese.

Dear, dear, here be treasons indeed. Teaching journalism in the dogdays seems to have soured the temper of the Republican editor. He is Rowelled evidently, for his retort is as acid as creamery buttermilk. Artemus Ward would call it sarkastik. That Mr. Francis continues to live, breathe and even to write is proof that he doesn't know that he is dead and is as insensitive to punishment as a ghost.

The journalist-professor thus certifies to the value of the instruction

SERMONS IN BRIEF

DISGUISED BLESSINGS.

(By Rev. Edward P. Dempsey, pastor of St. Mary's Church.)

Text: "Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth." Heb. 12:6.

It appears strange, but it is none the less true, that many of the trials, sufferings and misfortunes of life are disguised blessings sent to us by Almighty God. Personal experience and a little afterthought will make us recognize this fact in almost every phase of life. Health is man's best gift in natural life, yet it takes disease and sickness to make us fully appreciate it. Pain and aches are the warnings of physical extravagances and abuses, and have built up the whole science of medicine to aid man in keeping physically well. Failures in business ventures lead to extra caution and success. Betrayed friendships make us careful of our associations and needy hours cause us to value true friends. Calamities tell us of our weaknesses and lead us to more cautious efforts. An earthquake displayed the frailties of our sister city and has led to the strongly built and well protected San Francisco of today. All this is also true of our spiritual life. The sick head causes man to think of the vanity of earthly ambitions, as also of the more serious things of eternity. Death of a friend or near one reminds us all of the common fate of mankind and bids us to prepare. It is privation that returns the prodigal son to his father's house; sickness caused the Centurion to seek Christ. The maimed, blind, palsied and leper stricken soon found their way to Him. The Scriptures are a record of human sorrow, showing man's dependency upon his creator. And so with us all through life. Misfortune of one kind or other causes the wrongdoer to reflect and teaches all the vanity of human things. Murmur not at the trials that come to us. Avoid them when we can. Many of them are our own creation, but when they do come, make the best of them. Seek in them the hidden blessing and learn the particular lesson they are intended to give us. Throughout all the misfortunes of life bear in mind the encouraging words of St. Paul: "The sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that shall be revealed in us."

tion he imparted to his summer class: "In the second place, they did study newspaper work in the shops where newspapers are made. In fact, before the end of the course they were daily gathering and writing a large amount of actual news, which the San Francisco papers were actually printing. Not one of these would print the stuff Fillfrancis writes, the way he writes it. They would either dump it into the waste-basket marked "for literature contributed by journalists," or else, if it happened to contain a news fact, they would turn it over to a re-write man with the injunction: 'Here, Joe, take this wad of journalese and translate it into newspaper English.'"

And more to the same effect, which, however, does not explain why a teacher of summer journalism should be affronted at being called a journalist. But Mr. Rowell intimates that his lessons in journalism included instruction in swimming, cooking and baseball umpiring. His lectures were probably equally useful in imparting knowledge in the art of manicuring and baling hay. In short, as we understand it, a dogday course in journalism taught by a man who denies being a journalist teaches a man to be anything but a journalist. Why, then, should it be called a school of journalism? What kind of a summer complaint is it?

Newspaper offices are quarantined against it, although patients discharged as cured are sometimes admitted after they have been fumigated and vaccinated, and are given assignments to report meetings of the Associated Charities, poultry shows and similar stirring incidents.

But all this aside, it grieves us to learn that Phil Francis is dead and that it is only his ghost that is doing stunts in the columns of the Stockton Mail. Still it will comfort us to know how he came to substitute Yiddish for his mother tongue in the land of shades; but it is a consolation that he did not take up with the brand of Kosher politics the Fresno Republican advocates.

It harmonizes with the eternal fitness of things that President Taft should lay the cornerstone of the new city hall. When the President spoke in Oakland on the occasion of his first visit to California, the bond election for erecting the city hall and improving the waterfront was then pending. Of this the President spoke, and expressed the wish that the bonds would carry. He was impressed, he said, with the enterprise which the improvement plans gave evidence of, and complimented the people of Oakland on the civic progress they were making. Therefore, when he lays the cornerstone he will doubtless feel that he in some degree contributed to the success of the bond issue which made the new city hall possible.

The establishment of a postal savings bank in Oakland is another evidence of the energy of our Congressman. As soon as he was notified that a postal bank was wanted here he set to work, and in a few days had a favorable answer. His good standing with the administration doubtless helped him, but the quick action he got is testimony to his prompt and tireless activity. He has never yet failed to bring home the bacon when his constituents wanted anything. He has been invaluable to this district.

The peace resolutions adopted by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce are lacking in definiteness. They should have called on the Senate to ratify the arbitration treaties President Taft negotiated with France and England. Let us have peace if we have to fight the Senate for it. In case of war, we propose Colonel Theodore Gier for command of the forces.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

Not satisfied with their haul at the electric car house on Sunday night, the two highwaymen were out on business again last night, and raided the office of the Log Cabin Bakery, 2075 San Pablo avenue. Their scoop was once more a highly successful one, for they enriched themselves by $250 and a fine gold watch.

Sheriff Huesey this afternoon appointed Charles F. Murdoch assistant jailer at the county jail to succeed Andrew J. Bowman, who resigned because he did not like the liberties given Howell, the man accused of murdering E. S. Colvin. Bowman called on the sheriff and turned over his keys and handcuffs.

F. R. Porter's fight to be mayor's clerk received a damper at the hands of the city council last night when the ordinance providing for the office was voted down, as it did not state that the mayor had asked for a clerk.

Thomas Jones and Harry Cooper, two youths of this city, were rescued from the waters of the bay yesterday afternoon by Captain Poole of the ferry steamer Newark. They were clinging to the bottom of an upturned boat.

The capabilities of our Oakland architects and builders can be no better exemplified than in "The Juanita," as it now stands on the corner of San Pablo avenue and Eighteenth street. Few if any of our residents could identify it with the building which decorated for so many years Telegraph avenue, and was known as McClure's Academy. W. M. Hatfield is responsible for the structure. Mrs. E. S. Fairbanks, widow of the late Charles Fairbanks of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, has leased the upper floors and will open the rooms to guests about September 1.

County Treasurer Socrates Huff, recently shipped a sack of oysters intended for Justice Snook. A mistake was made and they went to Justice Ogden, who had them served on his table. When he went back to thank Treasurer Huff the mistake was discovered and what remained of the sack was duly turned over to Justice Snook.

ROWELL ON JOURNALISM

(Fresno Republican Aug. 21, 1911.)

Phil Francis, the Stockton Mail editorial revenant; resurrects some of the stock jokes of his former era to apply them to the summer session school of journalism at the state university. Francis, in the first place, does not think much of journalists, anyway. To be a journalist "is an occupation which calls for but little brain labor, and is about as useless and harmless as the old lady's well-meant efforts to help out the sea." The chief occupation of the journalist is to "grind out a column of dreary stuff about tariffs, finance, government, politics and glittering generalities of that sort," while the true "newspaper man," of whom Francis rashly avows himself one, will construct a "bright, readable paragraph, which will provoke a smile or excite human interest." And, obviously, neither of these arts can be taught in any school except the one in which Fillfrancis himself failed to learn it.

"The ability to write even a stupid editorial sermon, not to speak of a good newspaper talk or newspaper report, is not a thing which can be taught by precept. A course of lectures on the art of swimming would be just as valueless, and no more so. Swimming must be learned in the water; and newspaper work must be learned in the shops where newspapers are made."

"Possibly this piece of newspaper work might have been even more 'readable' and full of 'human interest' if the journalistic recusant who wrote it had known his own newspaper product, the Stockton Mail, was one of the most useful textbooks in that school of journalism. It was used, not as a model, but as a horrible example of how not to do it. For ordinary news writing, the students' own amateur productions, in the first week of the course, furnished illustrative blunders enough, but when it came to 'heads,' there was not a freshman in the university able to perpetrate such an assault on all the established rules of sound newspaper work as the eruptions with which Francis sought to conceal the news in the Mail."

Several other things about newspaper work those students learned which the Mail's recidivist has not yet found out. In the first place, they learned that a newspaper man is primarily neither a writer of dreary editorials, like the Republican's nor of "bright, readable paragraphs," like the ones Francis says he writes, but is primarily a gatherer, editor and arranger of the news. In the second place, they did study, "newspaper work in the shops where newspapers are made." In fact, before the end of the course they were daily gathering and writing a large amount of actual news, which the San Francisco papers were actually printing. Not one of these papers would print the stuff Fillfrancis writes, the way he writes it. They would either dump it into the wastebasket marked "for literature contributed by journalists," or else, if it happened to contain a news fact, they would turn it over to a rewrite man with the injunction, "Here, Joe, take this wad of journalese and translate it into newspaper English!"

And our ghostly friend may be interested to know that they taught swimming in that summer school, too—but they taught it in the water, and the students of journalism reported the contests they held. They taught cooking—but they taught it in the kitchen.

Wake up, pale shade! Several things have happened, both to universities and to newspapers, since you were last on earth. The freshmen in the university could tell you some pointers on modern newspaper work, and the printers' devil can tell you some things about a modern university. Come to the summer school next year, yourself, Phil, and take the course given there in baseball umpiring. It will help you with the sporting page.

ARBITRATION TREATIES

It has become popular to scoff at the power of the press, but that power is being somewhat strikingly manifested in connection with Great Britain and France. The cordial support which these conventions are receiving from the press, irrespective of party affiliations, is having its effect, and there is now prospect that if adjournment does not come too soon they will be ratified at this session.

Some of the senators who were most enthusiastic in their declarations that this would be evidence of wavering to-day, gave evidence of wavering to-day. The publication of the text has only served to dissipate opposition and to arouse popular support, and many communications urging the ratification of the conventions reached have come to members of the senate. There is abundant indication that in the near future opposition to these treaties will become highly unpopular, and once it does there will be few senators who will care to present any effective opposition.

The popular support which is behind these conventions appears to be a great surprise to members of the upper house. It is now proposed to defer consideration of the treaties until the regular meeting of the committee on foreign relations on Wednesday, but if sentiment changes as rapidly between now and then as it has in the last 48 hours they will then stand an excellent chance of being favorably reported.

PULL OUT A HAIR

The Way to Tell Whether or Not Your Hair Is Diseased

Even if you have a luxuriant head of hair you may want to know whether it is in a healthy condition or not. Ninety-eight per cent of the people need a hair tonic. You can make a test yourself that you can see and understand, which will tell you whether your hair is healthy or not. Pull a hair out of your head. If the bulb at the end of the root is white and shrunken, it proves that the hair is diseased and requires prompt treatment if its loss would be avoided. If the bulb is pink and full, the hair is healthy. You want everyone whose hair requires treatment to try our Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We promise that it will not cost anything if it does not give satisfactory results. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is designed to overcome dandruff, relieve scalp irritation, stimulate the hair roots, tighten the hair already in the head, grow hair and eradicate baldness.

Out of 100 cases where it was given a thorough, conscientious test, it grew hair on 93 per cent, which should be sufficient proof that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic contains extraordinary remedial and hair-growing qualities. It is because of our knowledge of this preparation and our sincere faith in its goodness that we want you to try it at our risk.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is a clean, clear preparation which does not grease, gum or thicken the hair, and it has a very pleasant odor. We have it in two sizes, prices 50c and $1.00. SOUNDS OF REVELRY
DISTURB LARKSPUR

Residents of Suburban Resort Weary of Noise Made by Roysterers.

LARKSPUR, Aug. 24.—War has begun on a number of young men's clubs in Baltimore canyon, the citizens declaring that midnight orgies, "beer busts" cause the redwoods to echo with strange noises. The first gun in the battle was fired this week when six members of the Allegro Club were arrested by Town Marshal Frank Murphy for disturbing the peace. The arrests were made shortly before midnight when about twenty-five members and guests of the club were enjoying an informal dance.

The young men who appeared next day for trial were Fred H. Francis, S. L. Berry, Robert Vail, W. B. Clement, S. L. Waterhouse and Joseph F. Kingwell. All pleaded not guilty and entered a demurrer to the complaint, on the ground that they were not charged with a misdemeanor and that the court had no jurisdiction. This was overruled by Judge de Guy Simpson. Attorney Henry B. Lister, who swore to the complaint, also prosecuted. He implied that "dummies" had been substituted for the alleged offenders and those in court were not the ones taken into custody the night previous. He said he was unable to identify the prisoners, since on the night of the arrest he had been summarily ejected off the premises by several stalwarts who resented his criticism of their conduct.

In view of Lister's failure to identify the young men the cases were dismissed. Following the dismissals, Judge Barrows of San Francisco denounced the various clubs in Larkspur and said the community was periodically offended by late revelries.

THROWN FROM HIS HORSE AND KILLED

SAN RAFAEL, Aug. 24.—A dispatch was received here from Florence, Ariz., stating that Sherman Daugherty, son of former City Assessor W. F. Daugherty of San Rafael, was thrown from his horse yesterday and killed. The message was sent by James S. Sinnott, a friend, who is bringing the remains here.

Daugherty recently became captain of police in Florence. He is well known here as an athlete and football player. He returned to visit his family three weeks ago, after having been in Arizona six years. He has a wife and four children at Florence. He has a younger brother, Elsworth, in Arizona, and a mother and sister at San Rafael, the latter being a school teacher.

Daugherty, who was 31 years of age, was a thirty-second degree Mason and a member of the Elks.

UNBIDDEN GUESTS
SLUG BRIDEGROOM

Because He Had No "Treats" for Charivari Party They Mob Him.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Aug. 24.—Because Andrew Edwards last night departed from the social custom which demands that a bridegroom "treat" when he steps into the state of matrimony, that benedict is today suffering from a badly wrenched shoulder, a gash on the head and a black eye. Edwards had no cigars for a crowd of men and boys who charivariated the couple last night and they forced an entrance into his house, then threw the bridegroom out of the door and down a flight of steps. The police are seeking the unbidden guests.

S. P. MAY SECURE
THE OCEAN SHORE

Rumor Regarding Future Ownership of Bankrupt Railroad Property.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Rumors were circulated yesterday in the financial district that a conference had been arranged between officials of the Southern Pacific and the Ocean Shore. It was stated that overtures had been made by the Ocean Shore and that the Southern Pacific people had expressed their willingness to consider a proposition.

Since the bondholders assumed control of the Ocean Shore, two distinct plans of refinancing the road have been under discussion. Two New York bond houses of large standing offered to raise funds for the completion of the line, but the terms they proposed were regarded as too burdensome for the Ocean Shore to ratify.

It is reported that the problem will now be placed before the Southern Pacific. The big road has only a limited resort business down the peninsula. Looking forward to the exposition, when hundreds of thousands of tourists will avail themselves of side trips from the city, a large passenger revenue is deemed a certainty.

A development within the last year that has added greatly to the potential worth of the Ocean Shore has been the great growth of the electric power business. It is now assumed that enough electric power will be available about the bay in a short time to make it possible to operate the entire Ocean Shore line by electricity. This would mean a big saving in operating revenue.

APPOINTED TO SELECT SITE

Three Men Named to Pick Out Spot for New State Reformatory.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24.—Judge C. M. McLaughlin of Sacramento, former justice of the district court of appeal, Earl Walcott, secretary of the Commonwealth club of San Francisco, and E. P. Oliver, a real estate man of San Francisco, who is better known as the foreman of the "Oliver Grand Jury," have been appointed by Governor Johnson members of a commission which will assist in selecting a site for the proposed reformatory for first offenders.

The appointments are made under an act passed at the last legislature, $150,000 being appropriated for the purchase of the site. These appointees, in conjunction with Governor Johnson and Lieutenant Governor Wallace, will constitute the board that will make the final choice.

BUSY STORK KEEPS
THIS MAN AT WORK

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 24.—Retirement from business delayed for fifteen years by frequent visits of the "stork" to his home, has come to W. S. Jackson, pioneer financier of this city. Fifteen years ago Mr. Jackson declared he would not retire until he had $1,000,000 for each of his children.

Before he secured $3,000,000 for his three children the "stork" paid repeated visits until the family increased to six children. Now, Mr. Jackson has amassed a fortune of more than $6,000,000; he determined to retire, and today sold his interest in El Paso National Bank to M. D. Thatcher, president of the First National Bank of Pueblo. Mr. Jackson's first wife was Helen Hunt Jackson, the writer.

It is expected the resolution will be ratified tomorrow. The California delegation entertained the Rotarians last night at a Panama-Pacific Exposition boost reception. The following national directors were elected: G. C. Mead, Philadelphia; W. G. Stearns, Tacoma and Eugene; C. McCan, New York.

GOLD STRIKE IS CAUSE OF RUSH

Stampede Starts for McClintock Creek in the Yukon Territory.

SKAGWAY, Alaska, Aug. 24.—Colonel Conrad of Caribou, who has arrived from Caribou crossing, reported a great placer gold strike on McClintock creek entering Marsh lake about 10 miles from Tagish post, Yukon territory.

A stampede has started for the new gold field and the town of Caribou is deserted with every one who has the right to file on a mining claim.

"Shorty" Austin and Reid Good were on the creek and found a lone prospector at work. He had a hole 15 feet deep and although he had not reached bedrock had found gold pay. The ground is not frozen, and the gold, which is coarse, appears plentiful.

AMERICANS PARTICULAR
ABOUT THEIR VIANDS

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Speakers at the session of the American Stewards' Association declared that Americans are more discriminating in their diet than people of any other nationality. G. G. Gowan, steward of the Union League Club of Chicago, said:

"America has stopped its heavy eating. A banquet menu is no longer measured with a tape. Light eating is the rule. The average man today consumes about one-half the food the man of similar activities did twenty years ago. The American cares less for rich sauces than he formerly did."

The French are now taking their cooking lessons from America. The day of rich food is past. Simplicity and quality are the keywords of the modern school in the selection and preparation of food."

Mosquitoes Bad
This Year

But don't scratch the poisoned skin. Use a mild, cooling, healing compound that stops the itch instantly, draws out the poison in the skin and protects it against further trouble.

Just a mild cleansing wash of oil of wintergreen, thymol and a few other ingredients known as the D. D. D. Prescription (so famous in cases of Eczema) and you have mosquito protection for the season.

Jones proposes to run freight steamers and a passenger boat between San Francisco and Alviso and a line of automobile trucks and passenger buses between that port and this city. This steamboat line might later merge into a proposition to build a canal up to the San Jose limits.

The chamber voted to consider Jones' proposition.

Woman's Happiness

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an oily emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

GRAND OPERA AT IDORA PROVES GREAT ATTRACTION

MARIO CORTADA, as the Duke in "Rigoletto," at Idora Park.

That impresario Lambardi's Grand Opera Company has scored a far greater success than on any of its many previous visits to the Pacific Coast is the unanimous verdict of the critics and lovers of opera who have crowded into Idora Park theatre during this, the opening week of the grand opera season. Popular price, grand opera of a high order has been heard before at Idora, but Lambardi's talented song birds and musicians furnish more enjoyable surprises than one can possibly imagine. Naturally, business at Idora Park is tremendous and a bit of good advice is to secure your tickets well in advance at Sherman and Clay's either in San Francisco or Oakland or at Tupper & Reed's in Berkeley.
The four operas (which included the double bill) comprising the first week's repertoire have met praise from the critics and music lovers.

This evening "Traviata" will be the offering with Leovalli, Giani, Cortada or Guarnieri, Antola or Giovacchini, Neri and Marco. It will be repeated on Saturday evening. "Gigoletto" is billed for Friday, and the double bill of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is scheduled for Saturday matinee.
For next week will be offered "Il Trovatore" with Bosetto, Giani, Salazar, Giovacchini, Cecchetti, Neri and Marco on Sunday matinee Wednesday and Saturday nights. "Lucia," with either Antola or Buganelli, Levy and Albiach on Sunday night, Monday night Thursday night and Saturday matinee. "Faust," with Leovalli, Bardelli, Mori, Antola and either Guarnieri or Cortada on Tuesday and Friday nights.
Ferullo's band continues to render two excellent concerts every day. A classical program will be played Friday evening.

FRANCE APPOINTS COMMISSION.
PARIS, Aug. 24.—The French government will establish in the United States a permanent mission for the study of industrial, technical and commercial methods. Ledere de Pulligny, chief engineer of bridges and roads of France, has been named as the head of the mission, which will leave for New York September 1.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 24.—For poking fun at two foreigners at Rankin, a suburb, last night, Harry Morgan, aged 26, and James Robbins, 24, were given unique punishment that almost resulted seriously.
Each of the foreigners picked up one of the men bodily, carried him to a nearby water trough, plunged him into the water and held him under. A crowd gathered, but feared to interfere, owing to the foreigners' threat. The foreigners fled when a policeman came in sight and the two young men were taken from the water in a dazed condition.

HASTENED TO ALTAR

SAN MATEO, Aug. 24.—The hasty romance of Robert A. Smith, a clerk, who met his bride, Miss Margaret Welsh, at the Scotch ball Saturday night and married her the following Monday, was Smith's second matrimonial venture of a kaleidoscopic nature. About two years ago he became acquainted with Marie Rogo, a beautiful Portuguese girl. Her parents objected to the match and a runaway to Redwood followed. NO VACATION FOR PARADE PURPOSES

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 24.—Judge E. P. Samuel of the Yuba county Superior Court holds that the attendance at the State Fair is not sufficient reason for officials of the Preston School of Industry to request him to withhold commitments to that institution. Accordingly he has sentenced Vasilia Vascilli and Woldimar Woldimar to that institution.

Representatives of Preston asked Judge McDaniell to withhold commitments to that school until September 1, selecting Whittier instead. When the court said he did not believe Governor Johnson closes any State institution, the Preston School band is to be one of the attractions at the fair.

Teething babies always have a hard time of it when this process occurs in hot weather. They not only have to contend with painful gums, but the stomach is disordered, bowels loose and the body uncomfortable. The best help you can give the little sufferer is MCGEE'S BABY ELIXIR. It corrects sour stomach, cools and quiets the bowels and helps digestion. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by Whelan's drug store, 1001 Washington street.

Miss Eugenia Tully and Claud H. Fagel to Spend Honeymoon on Ranch.

When Miss Eugenia Tully and Claud H. Fagel, of Oakland, announced to their friends and relatives some months ago that they were engaged they said that they would tell no one of the date of their marriage. They made good this promise Saturday afternoon when they were quietly married by the Rev. F. H. Maar, pastor of the Fourth Congregational church of Oakland, and an old-time friend of the Fagel family.

The young people had fitted up a flat at the Maryland apartments, unknown to any but themselves, and have spent this much of the honeymoon in their own home. They expect to leave for Mendocino county within a few days, where they will spend several weeks at the ranch of the bridegroom's father, Frank E. Fagel, Oakland agent for an automobile company.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Eugenia Tully of 613 Forty-first street. Her youthful husband is interested with his father in the automobile business.

Accuses Agent of Practicing Fraud

STOCKTON, Aug. 24.—Serious charges have been brought against George M. Pock, a local real estate dealer, by A. J. Silveira, who alleges that the agent made him a deal, then inveigled him into a land deal, selling him a ranch for an abnormal sum. Silveira has brought suit to cancel the contract and secure a return of the consideration.

According to the complaint, Silveira last July entered into a contract with Pock to pay $48,000 for an island farm, $5000 to be paid in cash, $13,000 within one year, and the remainder in equal installments.

The plaintiff says he afterward learned that it was intended for the year to get only one-third of the crop this year, instead of the entire yield as promised.

Silveira affirms that he was intoxicated when he made the contract, and that had he been sober the proposition would not have appeared to him.

The former owners were Anastasia Commins and Mary K. Commins.

Taft to Be Invited to Mare Island

VALLEJO, Aug. 24.—President Taft is to be invited to visit Mare Island during his coming visit to the coast. The invitation will be sent by the local Merchants' Association. President Dannerbach of this body has called a meeting to discuss the matter, and to prepare the invitation, and every effort will be made to induce the President to visit what is the largest navy yard in the world.

During President Taft's visit to San Francisco the U. S. N. in charge of the lighthouse service in the district will tender the President the use of one of the United States lighthouse tenders, and it is hoped that he will use one of these vessels to make the trip to Mare Island.

WIDOW DIES WHILE SUIT IS PENDING

MARTINEZ, Aug. 24.—The Southern Pacific Company has escaped from a further controversy in the matter of the killing of Benjamin Blackwell, who was struck by a train of the company at Martinez on November 11, 1905. This is because the death of the man's widow within the last few days has been followed by the death of the man's attorney, M. R. Jones, attorney for the railroad, appeared in court yesterday before Judge R. H. Lattimer and petitioned for a dismissal of the case on the ground that there was no one remaining to prosecute the case, which was a suit for $25,000. The case has been dragging through the courts for several years.

CHICAGO TO HAVE EIGHT CENT MILK

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Milk in Chicago during the winter months will remain at eight cents a quart unless the wholesalers decide to insist upon a raise. The Milk Producers' association, representing dairymen from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin, has set the price of milk for the winter months from October to March and although a move was made to increase the price to nine cents, it was finally agreed that the same price that was issued last year will remain for the coming six months.

DELIVERS DIAMOND.

VALLEJO, Aug. 24.—M. K. Grant, a Vallejo Jeweler, with a $250 diamond, delivered in response to a telephone message from a "Mr. Gordon" at Mare Island navy yard, asking for the man who asked for the gem came from Samuel Gordon, civil engineer in the public works division at the naval station. The message said that his orderly would be sent, but he denies any knowledge of the affair. The police are working on the case.

HOME IS BURNED.

STOCKTON, Aug. 24.—The home of Richard Goddard, business agent for the Building Trades council, was destroyed by fire yesterday. He lived at 238 West Park street.

ACCUSED OF STEALING.

E. B. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Benjamin Salve of stealing the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a remedy its equal does not exist." Only 25c at Osgood Bros.

AMELIA STONE IS CLEVER ARTIST AT THE ORPHEUM

MISS AMELIA STONE, who is one of the stars at the Orpheum.

There isn't a bit of doubt that the Oakland Orpheum this week has positively the classiest show that ever came to the big vaudeville temple. For two weeks this particular bill crowded the immense Orpheum on O'Farrell street to the doors. Over the way it was voted to be a really extraordinary collection of vaudeville wonders. Now the Oakland folks are having a taste of its magnificence.

The way the crowds are flocking to the Twelfth street theater is pretty good proof that Oaklanders know a big bargain in theatricals when it comes their way.

"Scrooge," the beautiful Dickens sketch which is one of the chief features this week, is to leave Saturday night. Its stay in Oakland is limited to seven days. Ordinarily the vaudeville acts at the Orpheum are kept for two weeks, but "Scrooge" was retained for seven days only. Those who love their Dickens are sure of a treat at the Orpheum this week, for "Scrooge" is unquestionably a classic in the field of one-act dramas.

Like the clear diamond the beautiful operetta which Amelia Stone and Armand Kalisz present shines and glitters and glows on the stage, winning unstinted admiration for its brilliancy. Miss Stone and Kalisz are remarkably clever artists, each of them a star in the theatrical world in the East. Kalisz wrote "Mon Amour," the operetta in which he and Miss Stone now appear, and the music is being whistled and hummed all over the town, which is sufficient proof of its great popularity.

The four Londoners are giving an acrobatic performance that is simply wonderful. According to M. Nedeveld's Simian Lou Anger is making a hit with his lively German comedy. He is always a welcome visitor.

The Darling of Paris will end its wonderful successful season next Saturday night. It has drawn immense crowds to the Orpheum during the last ten days, proving to be one of the most attractive importations the Orpheum company has ever made.

Horace Wright and Rene Dietrich, sweet singers, who have become great favorites, will also close their engagement next Saturday night.

Teitzig and M. Nedeveld's Simian Lou Anger is making a hit with his lively German comedy. He is always a welcome visitor.

THEFTS FROM THE UNITED RAILROADS ARE UNEARTHED

Defectives Trace Pilfering, and Three Employees Lose Their Jobs With the Company

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—An ingenious system of stealing, involving the loss of a considerable sum of money, and running over a long period of time, has been uncovered by detectives in the Fillmore street office of the United Railroads. Three men, said to be suspected of thefts, have been dismissed and fear-prosecution have left the city. The investigation is still on and other developments may follow.

The methods used by the men are new. According to a statement made yesterday by an official of the company, the three men were working independently of each other. One clique robbed the cash bags of the conductors, while the other pilfered quantities of children's half fare tickets. The third clique was in the office of the company, where they had suspected that something was wrong in the cashier's office at the Fillmore street barn and a few months ago, when complaints commenced to pour in from conductors, whose cash was found to be short, they engaged detectives and a watch was set.

Woodford, who was in charge of this department until he was let out three weeks ago, has a wife and three children. He was first employed by the company after the fire as a strike-breaker, later being promoted to a clerkship in the school children's ticket department. He has left the city and his whereabouts are unknown.

Spencer lived at 3254 Sacramento street with his family, but has not been seen since he was allowed to resign. He was employed by the company in various capacities for 22 years.

General Manager Black would not admit to the resignation of the suspected men would be prosecuted, but it is known that the investigation into the affairs of the Fillmore street office is not ended.

10,000 MARK IS PASSED BY MUNYON

New Health Cult Numbers More Members Than Founder Predicted.

Many Converts Tell Stories of Cases Cured by His Methods.

When Professor James M. Munyon of Philadelphia opened headquarters in Oakland some weeks ago for the purpose of introducing in person his new ideas on health and happiness, he announced that within six weeks his followers would number 10,000. More than that number have already enthusiastically announced their belief in the noted Philadelphia's method. In regard to the rapid spread of his theories here, Professor Munyon said:

"It is now a matter of actual record at my offices in the Macdonough building that more than 10,000 persons have satisfied themselves by personal trial that my methods will do all that I claim for them. This success here is very gratifying to me, for it proves once more that my years devoted to fighting disease have not been spent in vain."

He has now established permanent offices here, where a large staff of expert physicians will give free advice to all sufferers who call. I confidently expect to enroll at least 50,000 converts to my cult before September 1.

Munyon's offices in the Macdonough building, 14th and Broadway, are thronged with callers, many of whom testify to the really amazing success of the expert's methods. Among them are:

Deputy Sheriff Frank Connolly—Suffered tortures with rheumatism more than 13 years. Tried many remedies, but grew steadily worse until treated by Munyon. Within two weeks disease disappeared; now considers himself permanently cured.

Mrs. W. Collins, 247 Turk street—After many years of stomach trouble, which nothing relieved, had nervous breakdown and was almost physical wreck, when she consulted Munyon, now in the best of health as result of his method.

Mrs. Fannie Butler, 157A Fillmore—Suffered agonies from rheumatism; doctors failed to help her. Within three days after commencing Munyon treatment, felt better; is now entirely cured.

Miss Olive Christian, 3857 Twenty-fourth street—Had chronic stomach trouble many years. At last became so ill that she was subject to fits, which also led to epileptic attacks. Complete treatment by Munyon, convulsions entirely disappeared, health restored.

Mr. E. McLead, fireman on tender Sequoyia—Suffered from stomach trouble, which baffled doctors for many years. Upon taking Munyon treatment passed 50-foot tapeworm, which had been sapping his vitality. Is now well.—Adv.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Prohibition of the use of dogs wearing bells or other noise producing devices in wild fowl shooting in Delaware; of automobiles in duck hunting in North Dakota and of guinea pigs in hunting rabbits in Michigan, were some of the novel features of the year's game laws legislation. A review of which has just been issued by the department of agriculture.

In a farmer's bulletin for free distribution, the biological survey has compiled the game laws for 1911 giving a summary of legislation relating to season, shipments, sale, limits, and licenses of every State and of Canada.

The game legislation of 1911, says the report, "while it exceeded in volume that of any previous year, was directed rather to change in the warden service, control of the license funds and curtailment of the bag limit than to modifying seasons."

Notable modifications were made in enforcement provisions in several States and measures were taken to the increase of game by propagation or purchase were adopted in other States.

With the rapidly growing complexity of regulations, Federal, State and local—in 50 States and territories and the constantly increasing number of persons who hunt the deer, legislation, a review of which has just been issued by the department of agriculture.

Surely no home need be without a piano now. Within the time limit set for our sale we must make a clean sweep of every used or shopworn piano on our floors. These include new and slightly used instruments, some returned from rentals and others turned in from fine homes in exchange for the wonderful Autopiano.

It sells regularly for $750.00. It sells at that price at prominent piano stores in many parts of the country noted for their low prices. It has seen some slight usage, but this has not in any way impaired its musical quality. You or any one can play it with hardly a moment's study or practice, artistically, too. It may be used also the same as an ordinary upright piano for hand playing. All we ask for it is $365.00, $25.00 cash and $10.00 a month will pay for it. Other player pianos are here at $450.00 and upward.

PRACTICE PIANOS $48.00.

A neat little Steinway upright is now marked $165.00, and a Knabe until 10 o'clock during this sale.

ARMY IS IN NEED OF FIELD ARTILLERY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The estimates for the army for the next fiscal year will be in the aggregate about the same as the amount appropriated by Congress for the military establishment during the current year, which was $4,210,400. The only item of increase will be for field artillery and ammunition. Officers of the army pointed out there is a sorry lack of field artillery.

The bullet went through Pinto's body and inch beneath his heart and buried itself in Keno's body. Both men will die. Their assailant escaped.

25,000 EAGLES MARCH IN GREAT STREET PARADE

BERKELEY GIRL APPEARS AS GODDESS OF LIBERTY

OFFICERS TO BE GUESTS AT BANQUET

Tremendous Crowd Sees the Lodge Men on March in Fantastic Costumes.

Col. Herbert Choynski Heads Monster Procession as Grand Marshal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Eagles to the estimated number of 25,000 marched San Francisco's streets today in the big parade of the Grand Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. The majority of the marchers were garbed in fantastic costumes. There were many automobiles in the line of march, some of them extravagantly decorated. The parade was witnessed by a tremendous crowd.

Miss Anita Brodt of Berkeley made a regal appearance as goddess of liberty in the parade, riding in an elaborate float. She was attired in a costume in which the national colors were blended.

Features of the parade were the Oakland and Fruitvale lodges. Each appeared with a gorgeous float which attracted the cheers of the thousands lining the sidewalks.

The election of officers of the Grand Aerie did not cause much interest except in the case of two or three contested offices of minor importance. The withdrawal yesterday of J. J. Cousack, the insurgent candidate for president, eliminated the principal interest.

INSURGENTS BUSY.

The insurgents say that in forcing certain changes in the manner of conducting the affairs of the grand aerie they accepted their desires.

John S. Parry of San Francisco is charged with the task of secretaryship by John F. Maloney of Watertown, N. Y. The result of the election probably will be announced tonight.

The banquet to the grand officers and to the delegates to the grand aerie will be held at the Hotel Langham.

The parade started shortly after 10 o'clock, the line of march being from the intersection of Van Ness avenue, east on Market street to East street, thence countermarching on Market street to Montgomery street, thence to California street, thence to Kearny street, on Kearny to Market street, to Van Ness avenue, thence north to Golden Gate avenue and by the reviewing stand in front of the Eagles' hall.

CHOYNSKI IS MARSHAL.

Colonel Herbert Choynski was grand marshal of the monster procession and Colonel T. M. O'Neil his assistant. Each of the ten divisions was presided over by an aid to the grand marshal. Besides the great number of bands which took part in the parade, there were many drum corps among the aeries in this section of the state in line.

A large number of prizes were offered for different features. A prize of $500 was offered for the best drilled company, another for the best uniformed aerie, and still others for individuals, such as the tallest, shortest and the smallest man in line of march. The aerie having the greatest number of men in line will receive a prize of $250. In all the competition drills and parade competitions the San Francisco aeries are disqualified.

The San Jose delegation, headed by E. J. Mathew, turned out in body this morning to welcome 250 members of San Jose aeries, who arrived at 9:30 o'clock on a special train from that city in order to take part in the parade. They held open house at their headquarters at Hotel Langham, loading down all visitors with samples, including liquors, of the products of Santa Clara Valley.

BAKERSFIELD PRESENT.

The Bakersfield Eagles, 100 strong, were one of the features of the parade. As far as possible the delegations in the parade were arranged according to the dates their respective states entered the union. In the case of the aeries the arrangement was in alphabetical order.

Hundreds of aeries were represented and fully 40,000 people lined up on both sides of the city were on hand to take part either in the parade or to cheer the marchers.

Tonight at 6:30 the banquet to the grand officers of the Eagles and delegates to the Grand Aerie will be held in Scuttsville Rite hall. A theatre party will take place at 8 p. m. under the direction of the Ladies' Auxiliary committee. A continuous reception was held during the day by the Ladies' Auxiliary at the St. Francis and by the visiting delegates at the various aerie headquarters.

The Grand Aerie will adjourn tomorrow.

CALIFORNIANS HEAD PARADE

Western Delegation Leads Moose, 10,000 Strong, in Detroit Procession.

DETROIT, Aug. 24.—The principal executive session of the annual convention of the Loyal Order of Moose was scheduled for today and the selection of the 1912 convention city was also on the program. A dozen resolutions and a number of amendments are before the convention. Kansas City, Denver, Los Angeles and Seattle conducted a vigorous "next convention" campaign on the streets yesterday. While it was generally believed yesterday that either Denver or Kansas City would secure the 1912 convention, the delegations from the other two cities refused to concede the honor until the vote was taken.

Each lodge represented in last night's parade is to receive a set of moving picture films taken of the procession in which close to 10,000 Moose participated.

The California delegation headed the parade of last night. Among those present from Oakland were Congressman Joseph Knowland, Judge George Samuels, former Councilman Harold Everhart, Judge St. Sure, Brennan, Prycholz and Past Dictators, Bloom and Kennedy.

The California bear carried by the delegation made a big hit with the crowd. Frederick Dorn of San Francisco has been elected supreme prelate today.

Oakland has made a strong bid for the annual convention of the Moose should the municipal convention hall be completed by that time it is likely that it could be secured.

TO DROP INVESTIGATION OF WOMAN'S DEATH

ELOPING BRIDE TAKES POISON

After Four Weeks of Married Life Woman Drinks Lysol.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Troubles have come early in the married life of young Mrs. Gustave Rapp, who four weeks ago was Miss Mary King, and who eloped to Los Angeles to become the bride of Gustave Rapp, assistant foreman of the local fire department, stables at Tenth and Bryant streets.

At her home alone at 3351 Eighteenth street, shortly before midnight last night Mrs. Rapp took Lysol with suicidal intent. Her cries for help attracted the attention of neighbors and she was hurried to the Mission Hospital in an ambulance. There she was given temporary treatment and removed to St. Luke's Hospital. Her condition is critical.

Rapp said that he did not know why his wife took the Lysol, and that he was not at home when it happened. About four weeks ago Rapp and his bride eloped and were married in Los Angeles.

Neighbors took the family up town after the fire and procured them new clothing.

Accused Prisoner Inspects the Vehicle in Which Wife Was Murdered.

Shakes Head in Disapproval When Uncle Appears as Witness.

CHESTERFIELD COURTHOUSE, Aug. 24.—The blood-stained automobile in which Louise Owen Beattie met her death, was driven into the yard of the Chesterfield courthouse early today, just before the trial of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., indicted for wife murder, was resumed. The prisoner was on the lawn when the machine arrived and calmly inspected it. His father raised the cushion of the front seat, revealing a mass of coagulated blood on the woodwork. The court convened at 10:30 o'clock and the prisoner took his seat promptly. Today is the first anniversary of his marriage to the woman he is accused of murdering.

SIXTY WITNESSES CALLED.

More than sixty witnesses were called from the lawn, sworn in and instructed to remain outside near the courthouse, but not near enough to hear testimony through the open windows. With a few exceptions both sides agreed to exclude all witnesses from the room while not testifying. Thomas Owen, uncle of Mrs. Beattie, to whose home the prisoner brought the body after the tragedy, took the stand at 11:20. He was summoned to testify how Beattie brought the body to the Owen home with the story of a man in the roadway firing into his automobile and killing Mrs. Beattie.

The prosecution has ready its list of more than seventy other witnesses, most of whom will be used in sketching Beattie's past life in an effort to build up a motive for the crime.

GIRL IS IN JAIL.

Beulah Binford, the 17-year-old girl, said to have come between the prisoner and his wife, remains in jail at Richmond. Her testimony probably will not be introduced until tomorrow or next day.

It was not announced when Paul Beattie, the prisoner's cousin, who swears that he bought the gun with which the crime was committed, was called, but it is expected that he will take the stand before the Binford girl.

GAZES AT WITNESS.

While the prisoner gazed fixedly at him, Owen told how Beattie drove up to the house on the night of the murder, took his young wife into the car and returned an hour later with the dead body beside him. He said Beattie cried: "My God! My God!" as he drove up and that Beattie shouted: "They have killed Louise." Owen told how the body was lifted from the car, but said he did not examine the corpse at that time. "When it was prepared for burial, however, he saw the wound in the left cheek, which he described as being a big, jagged, 'char' hole." As the witness said this Beattie mumbled "half dollar" loud enough for those near him to hear.

Beattie's blood-soaked clothes were shown the jury and the witness identified the blood on the body as his, with which the commonwealth says the shot was fired, was then exhibited.

IDENTIFIES GUN.

Owen identified the gun as the one shown at the coroner's inquest when Paul Beattie swore he had purchased it for his cousin's birthday.

"He seemed to be grieved, and I tried to keep him out of the room where the body was," said the witness. "I sent out for some whiskey and I sent out for some, and several times he inquired if his wife was dead. He requested me to telephone to his father."

"To what extent did Beattie use the whiskey?" asked counsel for the commonwealth.

"I am pretty certain I saw him take a drink," said Owen, "and later I found a half-pint bottle empty." He could not swear, however, that the prisoner had drunk it all.

The witness described the "bearded highwayman" pictured to him by Beattie as his wife's murderer and repeated Beattie's story of the alleged encounter and told of a scorching Beattie's face which the prisoner had said the man in the road inflicted.

"Did the accused render you any aid in an attempt to identify the assassin?" Owen was asked. "His description of the man was the only aid," replied the witness.

LEAVES JAIL TO ATTEND SON'S FUNERAL

Policeman Escorts Thomas J. Dooley From Prison to Services Over Boy.

Father Who Let 6-Year-Old Child Die From Burns Faces Prosecution.

His fatherly feelings awakened by two days in the city prison and the lodging of a felony charge against him, Thomas J. Dooley, father of the six-year-old boy who was allowed to die after 21 hours of agony from horrible burns, pleaded to be allowed to attend the funeral of his son this morning and the request was granted by Judge William R. Geary, sitting for Judge Samuel J. Quinn, of the police court. Dooley was taken to the funeral by Patrolman Coproy, the officer wearing plain clothes. Arraignment on the felony charge of having neglected the child when he was dying was put over until tomorrow morning, as the funeral was held at the time court was in session.

WIFE MAKES PLEA.

Dooley was allowed to go to the funeral only after his wife had tearfully pleaded with Captain J. F. Lynch that the man be allowed to attend the ceremony under guard. A petition signed by the neighbors of the Dooley family that permission be granted for him to leave the jail was also presented.

The funeral was held from the Dooley home at 1664 Atlantic street this morning. Mass was said at St. Patrick's church by Father Quinn, and interment was at St. Mary's cemetery.

Friends and relatives of the family followed the remains of the boy to the grave. The pitiful circumstances surrounding the case, aroused the neighborhood, and numerous floral pieces were sent to the house.

SORDID TRAGEDY.

Sordid tragedy had marked the last hours of the life of six-year-old Theodore Dooley. Horribly burned at the home early Monday morning, when his father had been for three weeks on drunk, he was allowed to lie in torture while the father ruled the family with a rod of iron and threatened to fly into a rage when the mother asked that a doctor be sent for.

When Mrs. Theresa McConnell, who resides in the adjoining house, offered to send for her physician at her own expense Dooley demanded of her what the Indians did when they were burned.

"Did the Indians have any doctors?" he muttered. "What did they do when they burned?" The mother applied sweet oil, but no narcotic to alleviate the sufferings of the child, was administered. The father did not wish to stand the expense of a doctor, as he had worked during the drunk debauch only two days in three weeks.

Coroner C. L. Tisdale, scathingly rebuked Dooley for his brutality at the inquest yesterday, declaring that he was unfit to be a father. The coroner's jury, after hearing Dooley's admission that he had refused to permit his wife or anyone else to send for a doctor, recommended that Dooley be prosecuted under the law which provides that parents must provide medical attention for their children.

LODGE MEN TO WITNESS BOXING

Woodmen Secure Permission to Hold Two Four-Round Contests.

Permission to hold two four-round boxing matches at Carpenter's hall was granted to Woodmen camp No. 94, of the Woodmen of the World by the city council this morning. The grant of permission was made on the recommendation of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety, Turner, to whom application had been made. The exhibition is to be held tonight.

The question was raised as to whether such formal permission was necessary, as no admission will be charged and the two bouts will be merely an exhibition of the fists for the lodge members and their friends. This was referred to the city attorney for an opinion, and in the meanwhile the permit was granted.

GRAND ARMY TO EXIST 25 YEARS

10,491 Veterans of the Civil War Died Last Year, Says Gilman.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Before the first business session of the forty-fifth annual G. A. R. encampment convened today, it was predicted that Judge Harvey M. Gibbs of Princeton, N. J., would be elected commander-in-chief. In fact, there was a report that the supporters of General John McElroy, editor of the National Tribune, had given up the fight and that their candidate might be withdrawn.

It was said that President Taft's statement in his address at last night's camp fire to the effect that he was glad the Grand Army was non-partisan and that no suggestion from outside influences were permitted to have weight in the selection of its leaders, was regarded as a declaration that he was not in any way interested in the candidacy of General McElroy.

The election of Past State Commander Nicholas Day as senior vice-commander was conceded and the selection of Los Angeles as the next meeting place of the encampment seemed assured.

Today's program, including the annual address of commander-in-chief, Gilman and the presentation of annual reports. In his address Gilman spoke hopefully of securing an increased pension bill at the coming session of Congress. Referring to the "vanishing army," he said that while there were 10,491 deaths among the veterans during the last year, the Grand Army Republic would exist as an organization for twenty-five years more.

General Alvin C. Edmonds of Portland, Or., a delegate to the Grand Encampment, who was stricken with gastritis during yesterday's parade, died in the general hospital today. The body will be shipped to Portland.

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 24.—The hop crop of Sonoma county this year, with prices as they are, 41 cents a pound and prospects of a jump to 50 cents, will yield $1,500,000.

24-FOOT FENCE SHUTS OUT LIGHT

"Hold Up Game," Says Man Who Is Deprived of the Sun.

"Fine Mission Design," Declares Individual Who Constructs Obstruction.

What is declared to be a spite fence by John D. Frederickson's tenant, is making preparations to move, declaring that his family cannot do without the sunlight shut off by the alleged spite fence, which is 24 feet high. What worries Frederickson is that Goldstein is within his legal rights and cannot be compelled to take down his fence.

"Despite his unwarranted action," says Frederickson, "I have no ill feeling toward Goldstein, but rather than comply with his demands I will let my house remain vacant."

Here is what Goldstein has to say on the matter: "Mr. Frederickson is a fine man and I love him like a brother. The fence of Mission style and will look fine when it is painted on my side. It is unfortunate that it is too close to Mr. Frederickson's house to permit him to paint his side of it, but these little things will happen. Of course it will shut out his light, but then look how artistic a Mission fence is."

Mrs. Louise Enslen, who was also injured, is still at the hospital. Charles Petersen, who was charged by a coroner's jury yesterday with manslaughter, and held responsible for the collision of the automobile and street car, is still at the hospital and may not be able to leave for several days.

No indication has as yet been given that anyone will swear to the warrant charging him with manslaughter, in order to take the case into court. Dr. Petersen expressed surprise at the action of the coroner's jury, declaring that he will not press the charge.

U. S. ENGINEERS INSPECT BAY FRONT

Berkeley Wants to Extend Bulkhead and Reclaim Its Tidelands.

INSPECTORS ARE GUESTS AT LUNCH

Impetus Given to Manufacturing Industries on Alameda County Shore.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Following a luncheon at the Hotel Shattuck, at which they were the honored guests, Colonel Thomas P. Rees, Major A. S. Cheney and Captain C. T. Leeds of the United States corps of engineers, visited the Berkeley water front this morning. The visit was made in connection with the invitation of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce to examine the shore line with reference to a request for extending the bulkhead line westward.

The visitors were taken in an automobile with President C. C. Juster of the chamber and Mayor J. B. Wilson. The first drive was to the end of the municipal wharf where a general view of the bay front was obtained. Afterward the entire section was traversed so that the visiting officials might be able to judge for themselves as to the practicability of the plans promulgated by the chamber of commerce for the improvement of the shipping facilities of the city was shown and the visitors were given a general view of the residence part of the city.

NATURAL ADVANTAGES.

President C. C. Juster of the Chamber of Commerce in referring to the object of the meeting at the hotel, said that he believed that a city having a population of more than 40,000 inhabitants, located on the shore of a magnificent harbor, is entitled to have its natural advantages properly developed. We believe that great good may be wrought for this community by placing the bulkhead line westward, and we trust that it may be accomplished without detriment to any other part of the bay region.

To all that we ask is that Berkeley shall be placed on equal footing with neighboring cities so that it may solve its problems under the most favorable conditions.

President Juster introduced Director B. J. Blith, chairman of the committee appointed to consider the bulkhead line matter, who explained his views of the manner in which the shipping facilities of the city would be developed by the proposed change.

The bulkhead and a three-mile bulkhead with modern shipping facilities of an estimated value of $10,000,000 will be given to Berkeley if the project now under consideration by the city is reported upon favorably by the members of the United States corps of engineers, following their inspection of the Berkeley water front today.

The move on the part of Berkeley to secure advantages for the commercial advancement of the city is in line with the work now being done by the city of Oakland and the project recently launched in Richmond. The local chamber of commerce is back of the movement.

If the report of the government engineers is favorable it will pave the way for Berkeley to go ahead and close the gap which otherwise would be left on the shore line with the completion of the projects now under construction in Oakland and about to be begun in Richmond.

The Panama-Pacific International Exposition has given impetus to the manufacturing industries of Berkeley and of the entire east bay region.

The area of water front to be improved covers a stretch of three miles and the present tide water mark to the proposed bulkhead would be nearly two miles in width. The exact distance one and five-eighths miles, this reclaimed land would approximate a value of $10,000,000. It is estimated that to effect this improvement the project would require an expenditure of $5,000,000. Figuring conservatively the officials and those who are back of the project foresee a profit of $5,000,000.

The engineers in an informal way expressed themselves in an informal way ex-

BERKELEY FAMOUS, WRITES HODGHEAD

Former Mayor and Wife Arrive in London to Read of Home.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—That the fame of Berkeley's socialist municipal administration is fast encircling the globe is attested by former mayor Beverly L. Hodghead who, with his wife, arrived in London August 7 to read in the London Standard an account of Socialism in his home town. Hodghead writes to another former city official of Berkeley about being thus reminded in far-off England of the regime which has succeeded him at the local city hall. He sent a postcard from Edinburgh, Scotland, and reported that he and Mrs. Hodghead were enjoying their trip. They will be absent several weeks longer.

pressed themselves to the merchants as being favorably impressed with the water-front project after their trip along the bay shore. They indicated that whenever a genuine need of the city was presented to the department it would be given thorough consideration. It was indicated by the visitors, however, that they held that the extension to a difference of two miles bayward was too far for present demands.

VACCINATION AT COLLEGE STIRS PROTEST

League Fails to Secure Hearing With Wheeler and Wires to Johnson.

TO TAKE UP MATTER WITH THE REGENTS

Asks Governor What Right the University Has to Violate State Law.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Failing in their effort to arrange a conference with President Benjamin I. Wheeler for a formal protest against vaccination of students at the University of California, the chief of the California Anti-Compulsory Vaccination League, who issued this city, last night wired Governor Johnson to stop the practice.

At the meeting of the executive committee of the league in the Chamber of Commerce rooms it was decided to make a determined fight. President Wheeler replied that the vaccination orders issued at the university were not his to set a time when he would meet a committee from the league. President Wheeler replied that the vaccination orders issued at the university were not his to set a time when he would meet a committee from the league.

TELEGRAPH TO GOVERNOR.

The committee decided to take the matter up with the regents at their next meeting in about two weeks. A telegram was sent to Governor Johnson asking him to order the temporary suspension of the vaccination order until the league can have a hearing.

The telegram to the Governor was as follows:

"State university authorities are compelling vaccination in that institution, notwithstanding the law of last winter to the contrary. They refuse admission to students who decline to be vaccinated. Scores of vaccinations are compelled daily. Is the university a state institution? If not, why are the people taxed to support it? If it is, is the above the law? Cannot forced compulsory vaccination there be halted at the university? Will the committee of regents at its next meeting?"

"CALIFORNIA ANTI-COMPULSORY VACCINATION LEAGUE."
"A. J. WATERHOUSE, President."
"SAMUEL TAYLOR, Secretary."

WATERHOUSE PROTESTS.

Waterhouse, in discussing the matter today, said:

"The people generally recognize and consider the university here, a state institution and the law of last winter is urged to appropriate money for its support. The state law provides that vaccination must not be made a condition precedent to admission to the university. But notwithstanding the law, Dr. Reinhardt is compelling students against their will and the university is paying for the cost of the vaccination. The requirements for admission are made by the regents who are superior to the law. President Wheeler says the university is not a state institution. Why not gain the friendship of the thousands of anti-vaccinationists of the state? Why antagonize this great number of people by ignoring the law? It seems to me that the claim that the university is not a state institution is a device which President Wheeler has made at the next session of the legislature. We want to have a hearing before the regents and present the case of hundreds of young men and women who object to having their pure blood contaminated by vaccine virus. We ask fair play and object to snap judgment and Russian methods."

OBJECTS TO NIGHT MUSIC

Household Wants Assessment Reduced on Account of Piano Playing.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Should straps of music, more or less melodious, from a nearby house justify a reduction in the assessment of a property owner? S. H. Strite, 2431 Dana street, believes it should, and asked the city board of equalization today to lower his assessment. Some time ago Strite sold 50 feet of the rear of his property to Mrs. Wilkins, owner of Wilkins' hall. The sale was to allow for an enlargement of the hall.

The addition brought the rear of the hall almost up against Strite's house, and in said addition the offending piano was placed.

Strite claims that for some time he has been unable to rent several rooms overlooking the hall on account of the "noise" made by the piano. He states that the "noise" keeps up from 8 until 1 every night, and the selections at that are not of that peculiar nature which might appeal to the classed ears.

He appraises his holdings at $3350, claiming that the sale of the land and the piano have reduced them to that amount from $3550, while he is still being assessed for the latter amount.

The board decided that the piano playing did not justify a reduction in the assessment.

RAG TIME TRIO MAKES HIT AT BELL THEATER

DEANE, M'HENDRY and GREEN, the "Ragtime Trio at the Bell.

Take three chaps so full of fun and merriment as the "Ragtime Trio" at the Bell theatre this week and add three excellent singing voices, a dandy stage presence, and some rare ability on the piano, and you have a combination that is pretty hard to beat. At any rate this trio are making things hum in big gales of laughter at every performance at this popular house this week. They put over all sorts of stunts, all clever, and all stamped unreservedly in the praise of both patsy and player. The power of its lines coupled with the brilliant portrayal of Mr. Jose, grips at one's heart strings, sends a tear to your eye and brings a smile to your lips at the old man's quaint humor, all seemingly in the same moment. Mr. Jose associates in the production are of the class to give such a strong sketch, the presentation it deserves.

Two dashing little girls are the Hopkins sisters, pretty as pictures and lively as crickets, in several breezy vocal hits and some charming characterizations.

Mr. Eduard Jose in the virile tabloid drama, "Father," gives us one of the greatest pieces of character acting that has ever been seen here. In makeup, delineation and general appearance he so closely resembles the great American actor, David Warfield, that he has been called by many of the foremost critics, "The David Warfield of Vaudeville." "Father" is adapted for the stage presentation from the book by Henri Bernstein of the same name, and with Mr. Jose in the role, great writers of things theatrically have waxed exceedingly warm in the praise of both patsy and player. The power of its lines coupled with the brilliant portrayal of Mr. Jose, grips at one's heart strings, sends a tear to your eye and brings a smile to your lips at the old man's quaint humor, all seemingly in the same moment. Mr. Jose associates in the production are of the class to give such a strong sketch, the presentation it deserves.

Again there is more comedy when fat and happy Ben Smith, the black-face comedian, comes on with his much-battered half a suitcase. His stories are told in that droll manner that never fails to win his hearers while he gives evidence of a splendid tenor voice in a couple of song numbers.

Vivacious Mabel Wayne follows with more classic fun in her little set to with the audience in which she uses a piano and her own very charming voice. She gets on terms of intimacy right away with those in front and makes a hit from the start.

SUED TO REGAIN LEASE ON CAFE

Owners of Barnum Restaurant Declare Agreement Has Been Violated.

Charging that he has violated the terms of his lease by selling liquor without a license and allowing persons of immoral character to frequent the rooms and booths, the owners of the Barnum restaurant, the corporation which owns and operates the famous old Barnum restaurant and bar, at the corner of Seventh street and Broadway, has brought suit in the Superior court to oust Etore Quaglia from the premises.

The defendant took possession of the rooms and booths located in the second story of the building, the kitchen attached thereto and the yard adjoining the building on Seventh street under a lease for one year at $100 a month, beginning with the 1st day of the current month.

It is alleged by the company that he has violated his lease by selling liquor without a license and allowing persons of immoral character to frequent the rooms and booths. It is understood that the suit is the outcome of a complaint made to the company by a woman that her 18-year-old daughter had gotten drunk and been debauched in the upstairs portion of the building.

The Barnum restaurant, the noon-hour rendezvous for most of the Superior court judges and other court officials, and for many of the leading lawyers of the city. The Quaglia lease does not include it or the bar attached thereto.

BARBER IN TROUBLE.
REDWOOD CITY, Aug. 24.—R. B. Wright, a barber, is a man of trouble. Last week he borrowed a buggy and one of his friends, a woman, a conveyance, while another killed the horse, which had escaped. A warrant was issued yesterday charging him with burglary. It is alleged that he stole some barber's tools and $11 from a barber shop where he is employed.

FRECKLES GONE

"Simple Remedy From Osgood Bros. Removed Them," Says Society Lady.

"The best skin specialists told me that nothing would remove my freckles and that I would carry them to my grave," said a well-known society woman, "but I fooled them all with a new drug—Osgood Bros. strength, that I bought at Osgood Bros., which cleared my skin and gave me a fine complexion."

The action of Osgood Bros. is really remarkable for when applied at night, many of the freckles disappear entirely by morning, and the rest have begun to fade. An ounce is usually all that is needed, even for the worst case.

Be sure to ask Osgood Bros. for the double strength Osgood Bros. is sold under a guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.
